This is a test document for v1.13 anchor extraction proof mode.

The extraction engine should identify sentences and create provenance records.

Each anchor must have byte-level offsets within the extracted page text.